

My Two Timin' Woman by Hank Snow

Moderately

< Intro > || E ||

E
Well I woke up this mornin in a terrible mood

E7
Now you talk about a woman treatin' a good man rude

A E
She had me talkin' to myself gazin' at that mean ol' wall____

B7 E
She had another daddy waitin' down at the end of the hall____

E
She changes with the weather like the leaves I recall____

E7
She blossoms in the spring but then she's gone in the fall

A E
A two timin' woman with a heart of solid stone____

B7 E
She tells me that she loves me but her hearts a little under grown____

< Music - Lou > || E | % | % | % | A | % | E | % | B7 | % | E | % ||

E
Well she said she'd never leave me but she got the urge to roam

E7
She drifts around the country like a steamboat on the foam

A E
She never changes course, she just travels along that same ol' way____

B7 E
And I hope she keeps a driftin', and rolls along back home someday____

< Music - Lou >

E
Now if I ever find her, gonna chain her to the floor____

E7
And tell her, "Now sit there woman, you ain't leavin' no more"

A E
I'm gonna tame you, woman, till your eatin' from my hand

B7 E E < End >
It ain't that I don't love ya honey, it's just to make you understand
